Summer reading and gift ideas from Pax Christi

A Little Moment of Peace for children
This beautifully illustrated book by Jenny Moldrum helps young children and their parents spend a short time of stillness and calm together, finding God in the everyday situations of life.
Price £7.99

Dear World—A Syrian girl's story of war and plea for peace
A powerful reminder of the resilience of the human spirit, the unconquerable courage of a child, and above all the abiding power of hope. Written by 8 year old Bana and her mother. Suitable for older children upwards
Price £10.99

Between high and low water
A book of poems and songs from the edge. They belong to particular places: a village by the side of a single track road in the West of Scotland; the Separation Barrier between the West Bank and Israel. A Wild Goose publication written by Jan Sutch Pickard
Price £10.99

Peace on Earth coaster
Bright and beautiful Dove of Peace coaster
Price £2.00 each

Divine Fairtrade Milk Chocolate

Work with us!

RECRUITING NOW!

Pax Christi is an international Catholic movement for peace, based on the gospel, inspired by faith and Catholic Social Teaching.

The well-established British section of Pax Christi works within the Church, with ecumenical partners and with all who are putting into practice the work of peace, built on justice, reconciliation, and active nonviolence.

If you share these values, why not come and work with us!

We have a vacancy for a Communications and Resources Manager.

Peace Education Volunteers

Pax Christi Peace Education is looking for volunteers to help promote peace in schools through workshops and assemblies.

Support will be given.

If you would be interested, please contact Aisling:

education@paxchristi.org.uk

Please let us know of your events - we can promote them!

The Pax Christi team wish you all a happy and peaceful Summer
